As if the trees were there for her alone, the garden made simply for her convenience! After working rapidly for two full hours she paused to rest upon a dead twig, opening and closing her wings in the twinkling fashion of a bluebird, an exercise prefacing a breakfast taken in the nearest tree as she poised beneath the leaves. With appetite appeased she dropped upon the unfinished cradle and sat so still for twenty minutes that I was certain an egg was deposited. Doubtless the misfortunes attending previous nesting had interrupted the even tenor of life, the second housekeeping was more urgent than was anticipated. For ten minutes more her form was motionless though her head moved from side to side in a ceaseless surveillance - a warbler lunching in the next tree glanced casually in her direction, and was evidently just wild with curiosity....
