Excerpt: .But all its fair colours are shade. 86 Night. The sun, sinking under the hill, Is gone other mornings to make; The bustle of business is still; Only sorrow and sin are awake! The busy hand, busy no more, Is sunk from its labours to rest; Closed tight is each window and door, Where once the gay passengers pressed. The houses of frolic and fun Are empty, and desolate all; The din of the coaches is done, And the weary horse rests in his stall. Just such is the season of death, Which comes upon each of us fast! The bosom can t flutter with breath, When life s little day-time is past. The blood freezes cold in its vein, The heart sinks for ever to rest; Not a fancy flits over the brain, Not a sigh finds its way from the breast. The...
