D, Vol. 12: Containing Several Sermons Upon the Eight Chapter of Romans; And Sermons Upon 2 Corinthians V In the context, we have an assertion of a general truth, There is no condemnation to them who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. We have this application in the beginning of this verse, lest any should raise up a vain confidence that they were in Christ, and therefore freed from condemnation, without regarding what he had before said, expounding himself: ver. 1, Who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. He here further adds as an application of the proposition, he who hath not the Spirit of Christ, is none of his; which, because they were Christians in profession, was more accommodate to them. Here observe - Doct. That all true Christians have the spirit of Christ. 1. I suppose there are Christians, or Christ's disciples in name, and disciples indeed: John viii. 31. As an Israelite indeed:...
