The Cincinnati Branch has auxiliaries in other Southern States. The officers of each Branch society consist of a president, not less than ten vice presidents, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary, a treasurer, an auditor, and not less than ten managers. These, with the exception of auditor, constitute an executive committee for the administration of the affairs of the Branch, nine of whom shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. These officers are elected at the annual meeting of the Branch, and continue in office until others are chosen in their stead, No Branch projects new work or undertakes the support of new missionaries except by the direction of the General Executive Committee. The management and general administration of the affairs of the society are vested in a General Executive Committee, consisting of the corresponding secretary and two delegates from each Branch, which delegates, together with two reserves, are elected at the Branch annual meetings. Said committee meets annually at such time and place as the General Executive Committee determines. The duties of the General Executive Committee are: To take into consideration the interests and demands of the entire work of the society, as presented in the reports of Branch corresponding secretaries and in the estimate of the needs of mission fields; to...
