Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Physical Training for the Elementary Schools: Gymnastics, Games, and Rhythmic Plays The interest in physical education is a feature of the general conservation movement that has aroused the American people in recent years. Surely there is no greater national resource than the health and physical vigor of the people. This movement has taken four leading forms in our schools: 1. Better sanitary and hygienic conditions in school buildings. 2. Medical inspection, with adequate remedy for individual physical defects. 3. Instruction in personal and public hygiene. 4. Physical training as a means of physical development. Play is nature's method of developing the nervous and muscular mechanisms that give control of the body. As children advance in age, they turn from the spontaneous friskings and gambolings of all young life, to games of cooperation involving intellectual and social elements. The mere joy of muscular exercise is forgotten in the effort to secure the object of the game. Imitation, emulation, rivalry, the most persuasive human motives are enlisted. But games have moral values quite equal in importance to...
