Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Exhibiting Fruit and Vegetables For a number of years past the Horticultural Branch of the Department of Agriculture has been supplying judges for fruit, and to a certain extent for vegetables, for the numerous fairs of the Province. This was undertaken primarily in order to establish uniform and correct standards of perfection, which the indiscriminate choice of judges by each local fair had previously failed to do. The reports of the exhibition officials and exhibitors indicate that, to a very large extent, uniformly correct judging standards have now been established and maintained. It is also the desire to use the information so acquired by the Horticultural Branch to modify the prize-lists of the different fairs in such ways as to promote the culture of the best varieties of fruits and vegetables by giving the greatest prize-money to such varieties; by providing for commercial displays in order to educate exhibitors in the commercial methods of packing; and generally to build up exhibitions by inspiring their officials to keep well abreast of the progress of horticulture in their districts. The work of the Horticultural Branch has been of great assistance to exhibitors in the identification of varieties; in disseminating a knowledge of the various blemishes to which fruit is subject; and to a very large extent in promoting general information on what is ideal in fruit-production. This work, having been carried on for several years, has given general satisfaction. There has been a great improvement in the fairs, and the offer made by the Department to have the prize-lists of the various fairs revised at the end of each year by the Horticultural Branch has been generally...
