Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Negro Question: An Address Delivered Before the Wisconsin Bar Association There are in this country to-day from ten to twelve millions of native Americans entitled under the Constitution and laws of the United States to every right that any American citizen enjoys and protected against hostile legislation in any State by the Fourteenth Amendment. Yet all over the country their rights are ignored and they are subjected to indignities of every kind, simply because they are Negroes. The Constitution expressly provides that the right of citizens to vote shall not be denied or abridged. . . on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude. Yet in many States this provision is set at naught. The Negroes have felt the murderous violence of the Ku Klux Klan, they have seen brutality followed by fraud when elections were carried by tissue-paper ballots, and the same results accomplished later by grandfather clauses and laws intended to enable election officers to reject their votes. We need not enumerate the methods for we all know that in the Southern States the Negro vote has been and is suppressed. This is admitted and justified by the Southern people. Negroes are denied the protection which the law affords the lives and property of other citizens. If only charged with crime or even misdemeanor, they are at the mercy of the mob and may be killed and tortured with absolute impunity. In many States they cannot obtain justice in the courts. At hotels, restaurants and theatres they are not admitted or are given poor accomodation. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic...
