Coloring is an activity which has long been associated with children and it has been taken for granted that, as we mature, we put away our crayons and turn our attention to more adult pursuits. In recent years however we have seen this wisdom being rejected and coloring for grown-ups has become a widespread activity. But why has coloring for grown-ups become so popular? There are many explanations for the explosion in adult coloring, but here are just some. Coloring Lowers Stress And Anxiety Psychiatrists have long known that coloring relaxes the fear center of the brain and allows your mind to get some rest. Indeed the founder of analytical psychology, Carl Jung, is known to have given his patients mandalas to color more than 100 years ago. In the hectic world we inhabit today the stress relieving properties of coloring are perhaps more valuable than they have ever been. Coloring Trains Your Mind To...
